Annual Bazaar is 3 Weeks Away!
October 3, 2021

HELP NEEDED—the sign-up sheets are on the table in the entryway. Help is needed with set-up on Saturday and clean-up on Sunday as well as with the meal, games and making cookies for the cookie walk. Remember—Marita will send out an e-mail reminder the week before the bazaar of where and when you are signed up to help.

DONATIONS NEEDED—for the Live and Silent Auctions; for the Country Store and Bake Sale. All items are needed by September 28th except bake sale items.

QUILT RAFFLE—an envelope with a picture of the quilt, information and tickets was handed out or mailed to each parish family. The quilt is on display in the gathering space.

RETURNING—the games will be free to play. The meal menu is the same (brisket & pork loin), but the price is now $12.50 and $7.50. There is also the country store, bake sale, silent & live auctions, and a couple of card games.

Stewardship Sightings!

- Brent and Brenda Blocker for gluing a pew in the church.
- Tom Smith for hauling the parish and Marita's recyclables to Abilene last Wednesday.
- Judy Smith for providing the Religious Education calendar.
- Ladies who provided goods for Labor Day Bake Sale; Ladies & Knights who worked the booths; and all who supported both groups.
- Laurie McLaughlin for work on getting ready to kick off Religious Education this morning.
- Catechists Vicki Simenson, Sara Cook, Jon and Jenna Norton, Janice Carroll, Jenny Whitehair, Abby Anderes and Courtney Morgan for their commitment to the adults and youth of St. Michael's Parish.
